Gelados de Portugal

Concept

Gelados de Portugal is a Portuguese brand that distinguishes itself by promoting original Portuguese flavours, preferably using Portuguese raw materials. The secret to our genuine flavours lies in the ingredients we use. We favour national production on a daily basis, sourcing the raw materials that can make the difference locally.

We opt for non-heat-treated fruit rather than pulp, forgo artificial colourings and preservatives and buy ingredients of protected origin such as Ovos Moles de Aveiro and Port Wine to ensure that every ice cream is... Ice cream from Portugal!

Collaboration

We want our partners to feel part of a project that aims to strengthen national production and highlight the excellence of Portuguese flavours.

If you're looking for an ice cream brand that stands out for the excellence and portugality of its flavours and at the same time promotes a policy of environmental sustainability and proximity to its customers, we have solutions tailored to different business formats.
